North Haven Economic Development Commission to hold Spring Breakfast.

The North Haven Economic Development Commission is inviting local business owners and associates, as well as interested community members to their spring breakfast being held on Tuesday, April 21st at 7:30 am at the Best Western Plus located at 201 Washington Avenue, North Haven.

Topics on the agenda for this forum include several presentations on various projects and business and employment resources. Also included will be an update on the most recent economic development activity in Town by First Selectman, Michael Freda.

“This breakfast provides The Economic Development Commission a wonderful opportunity to share valuable information with our business community and enables me to provide economic development updates that are taking place all across town”, stated North Haven’s CEO, Michael Freda. Richard LoPresti, Chairman of the Economic Development Commission, commented that “we continue to receive positive feedback following each breakfast event. The businesses look forward to attending and leave with current and timely information.”

The breakfast is free, and the Commission is asking anyone interested in attending to RSVP before April 17th, by either contacting the Selectman’s Office at 203-239-5321 ext. 680, email at firstselectman@town.north-haven.ct.us or via the EDC website at www.northhavedc.com.
